

REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT TEAM #2

فريق مساعدة اللاجئين #2

www.refugeeteam2.org

March - April 2017

Who We Are: A group of volunteers who are committed to peace and social justice by helping refugees. Our team includes community activists of all ages: professors, teachers, students, financial advisors, filmmakers, homemakers, seniors and scientists.

Our Mission: To provide transitional support to refugees in Pomona & San Gabriel Valleys as refugees work to gain their independence.

What We Do: Fundraise to supplement refugees' rent, provide furniture, transportation; assist registration for social services, schools, medical appointments and English language classes.

Our Resettlement Agency: IRIS (Interfaith Refugee and Immigration Service) a non-profit organization based in Los Angeles that offers refugee resettlement assistance, employment placement services and immigration legal aid.

Our Partners: Organizations with networks and connections to strengthen our efforts.

- Claremont Presbyterian Church
- Islamic Center of Claremont
- Monte Vista Unitarian Universalist Congregation
- Pomona Presbyterian Church

Our Advocates: People, who commend, share and publicly support our work.

- Ann R. Schiff, President & CEO, Pilgrim Place, Claremont, CA
- Barbara Aswad, PhD, Professor Emerita of Anthropology, Wayne State University, Michigan
- Mahmoud Tarifi, Officer at Islamic Center of Claremont & Leader in the Muslim community
- Thomas Thorward, President, Next Generation Solutions, Inc., a software development firm
- Zayn Kassam, PhD, Author & Professor of Religious Studies, Pomona College, CA
- And more . . .
